Expert Event Hosting and Planning

THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB CATERING MENU

The National Press Club's historic and elegant venue is perfectly complemented by the creative cuisine and the impeccable service provided by our catering team, led by Executive Chef Susan Delbert.

The menus which follow present choices for every event you may choose to host in the Press Club, from: continental breakfast in the morning to hors d'oeuvres with dancing and drinks late into the night; a networking event with passed breakfast items to your wedding in our exquisite ballroom; or an awards banquet for corporate partners to afternoon tea for an intimate group.

The Press Club prides itself on the use of fresh, quality ingredients. All beef is Certified Angus Beef; fish is the freshest our supplier can deliver. Most fish and meats are butchered in house. Fruits and vegetables are local when available and seasonal alternatives guarantee the best flavor and freshness. Pastries and desserts are made by artisans using only the finest ingredients and old world techniques. Virtually every meal is made from scratch.

Food is artfully displayed when buffet service is requested and beautifully plated for seated meals.

When a chef is requested for a carving station, professionalism rules, but friendliness and warm cordiality are the standard for service. The banquet service staff will seamlessly orchestrate food service at your event and the food and beverage options will delight your guests.

The National Press is club is not only the world's leading organization for Journalists, Where News Happens, but it is also a unique, modern, genteel and special setting for any activity you plan to host. Your guests will come through the doors with heightened expectations and leave satisfied with your selection of the National Press Club for the event.
