

WHERE NETWORKING HAPPENS

Member benefits include:

- Exclusive access to lawmakers, celebrities, CEOs, ambassadors and other NPC speakers
- Hands-on podcast & on-camera interview training in the Broadcast Operations Center
- Working with the NPC Journalism Institute to defend press freedom in the US and abroad
- Ticket discounts for NPC book signings, film screenings, panel discussions, & other NPC events
- Happy hours, power lunches, and endless opportunities to connect in person with other local, media professionals
- Leadership opportunities like running for club office, moderating panels, and organizing events
- Judging award entries & scholarship applications
- Access to reciprocal clubs in 25 states & 26 countries

WHERE HISTORY HAPPENS

Since The National Press Club's founding in 1908, this private club has evolved to become The World's Leading Professional Organization for Journalists™ – working to protect a free press, bring reporters and sources together, and serve as a venue where influential people come to make headlines.

Images by NPC Members: Christy Bowe & Noel St. John

Join today! Ask: join@press.org
Apply: www.press.org/join

The National Press Club
202.662.7500
529 14th St NW, 13th floor
Washington, DC 20045

THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB

WHERE NEWS HAPPENS

WHERE WORK HAPPENS

Conveniently located between the White House and the Capitol, just a 5 minute walk from Metro Center, the National Press Club is your downtown DC office. Member benefits include:

- password-protected Wi-Fi
- work stations
- private podcast studio
- meeting spaces/conference rooms
- free breakfast every morning
- free coffee
- parking discounts
- on-site fitness center, including a personal trainer, sauna, towel service and day lockers

WHERE FUN HAPPENS

Images by NPC Members: Christy Bowe & Noel St. John

The Reliable Source Bar and the Truman Lounge serve as the heart of The National Press Club. For more than 30 years, Taco Night on Fridays has been the go-to for interns and seasoned professionals alike, with daily happy hour drink specials and snacks sparking lively conversations and life-long connections.

From black tie galas to softball games, membership includes many social options and a community of peers waiting to meet you. The Club hosts the annual Politicians vs Press Spelling Bee, wine dinners with celebrity chefs at the Fourth Estate Restaurant, a children's holiday party, and numerous other activities.

Journalists, editors, producers, photographers, media relations pros, communications directors and many others already belong to The National Press Club and so can you. No matter what stage of your career, NPC has a spot for you.

Membership dues range from $21 to $76 a month and can be billed monthly or annually. There is no monthly minimum. Members enjoy discounts to all ticketed NPC events and reduced-rate parking just a block from the Club, among other numerous benefits.

Apply for membership today: www.press.org/join or email join@press.org for more details.

WHERE NEWS HAPPENS

www.press.org/join